CUSTOM BUILDER'S SPOTLIGHT

SCOTTSDALE, ARIZONA

ARGUE CUSTOM HOMES

As a luxury home builder, Argue Custom Homes of Scottsdale, Arizona is in the business of turning dreams into reality.

The company strives to match the clientele's vision for design and meticulous construction techniques. As they say: "if you can dream it, we can build it."

"I've always had a burning desire to build homes that stand out," says Tom Argue. "When we meet a client we get excited, we're passionate about it."

Argue is one of the most prolific builders in the Valley and, with a 20-year history of stellar projects, one of the most respected.

Business is particularly brisk within the exclusive community of Silverleaf, a private enclave of custom estate home sites and intimate retreats tucked into the canyons of the McDowell Mountains in North Scottsdale, Arizona.

With its extraordinary views, classically designed Tom Weiskopf golf course, and 50,000-square-foot clubhouse and spa, this is the epitome of elegant desert living.

"We value DMB Realty's vision for the community and stringent guidelines for design and development," says Argue. "If you build in Silverleaf, you build to a higher standard."

With a strong focus on clients needs, the builder works to ensure each question is answered and every detail attended to, from the initial design process to move-in. They provide the highest level of customer service, ensuring that the home building experience is both positive and exciting.

After all, says Argue: "One of the most rewarding things a person can do is design and build a wonderful home."
